1. Biblical wisdom and cultural pressures don't always align
2. Some common lies about money from our culture
 - You deserve to have what they have
 - You are your mistake
 - YOLO - you only live once

"No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money."

Matthew 6:24 NLT

Yet true godliness with contentment is itself great wealth.

1 Timothy 6:6 NLT

Money is put into risky investments that turn sour, and everything is lost. In the end, there is nothing left to pass on to one's children.

Ecclesiastes 5:14 NLT

Good people leave an inheritance to their grandchildren, but the sinner's wealth passes to the godly.

Proverbs 13:22 NLT

¹⁹ "Don't store up treasures here on earth, where moths eat them and rust destroys them, and where thieves break in and steal. ²⁰ Store your treasures in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal. ²¹ Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

Matthew 6:19-21 NLT

Next Steps:

- Commit to handle my finances with wisdom and be a good steward of what God has given me to manage
- Resist the pull of materialism and accumulation of stuff by finding contentment with what God has already given to me
- Commit to delay/skip buying _____, which I really want
- _____
