1. If you are on a continuous search to be offended, you will always find what you are looking for

¹ Jesus left that part of the country and returned with his disciples to Nazareth, his hometown. ² The next Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked, "Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?" ³ Then they scoffed, "He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us." They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him. ⁴ Then Jesus told them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family." ⁵ And because of their unbelief, he couldn't do any miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them.

Mark 6:1-5 NLT

2. Who does God want us to honor?

- God
- Parents
- Those in authority
- Spiritual leaders
- Each other

Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce. Proverbs 3:9 NLT

"Honor your father and mother. Then you will live a long, full life in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Exodus 20:12 NLT

¹ Everyone must submit to governing authorities. For all authority comes from God, and those in positions of authority have been placed there by God. ² So anyone who rebels against authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and they will be punished. ³ For the authorities do not strike fear in people who are doing right, but in those who are doing wrong. Would you like to live without fear of the authorities? Do what is right, and they will honor you.

Romans 13:1-3 NLT

The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching.

1 Timothy 5:17 NIV

Love each other with genuine affection, and take delight in honoring each other.

Romans 12:10 NLT
